

For immediate release

Queer cabaret & kinky play party Pangaea returns for one night only to Sanctuary Studios LAX on Saturday, August 5 2017. Since 2012, this LGBT stronghold brought curious audiences together with experienced fetishists at LA's largest commercial dungeon, closing indeterminately last year with its killer "Monster Bash" show.

The play party sets itself apart from other kink events in its accessibility to newcomers as well as lifestylers - whether it is your first play party or your 50th this year, Pangaea has something new to offer. In addition to putting on a stellar show, Pangaea often features audience participation and round-table discussions on consent and safety. Charismatic host HP Loveshaft, a trained chef, provides hors d'oeuvre -- including vegan and gluten-free options -- in Pangaea's signature inclusive style.

Pangaea puts on "gender-splendid" drag, cabaret, burlesque and boylesque shows while creating a scintillating yet approachable atmosphere for consensual kinky play. HP Loveshaft irreverently describes the show as "one part improv & two parts gin" but the talent and passion of the volunteer troupe shines through in every terrific performance.

Pangaea brings its triumphant return to Sanctuary Studios LAX on Saturday, August 5th, 2017 at 9pm. For more information or sponsorship opportunities, contact HP Loveshaft at hploveshaft@clubpangaea.net or visit Facebook.com/clubpangaea
